

Mari Noguchi, the glass-artist of Atelier Mari-and-Bird, had a showing her glass-works in 1995, entitled “Aslan, golden eye - In search of Resonance of Soul”, inspired by “The Chronicles of Narnia, a series of novels” written by auther C. S. Lewis.

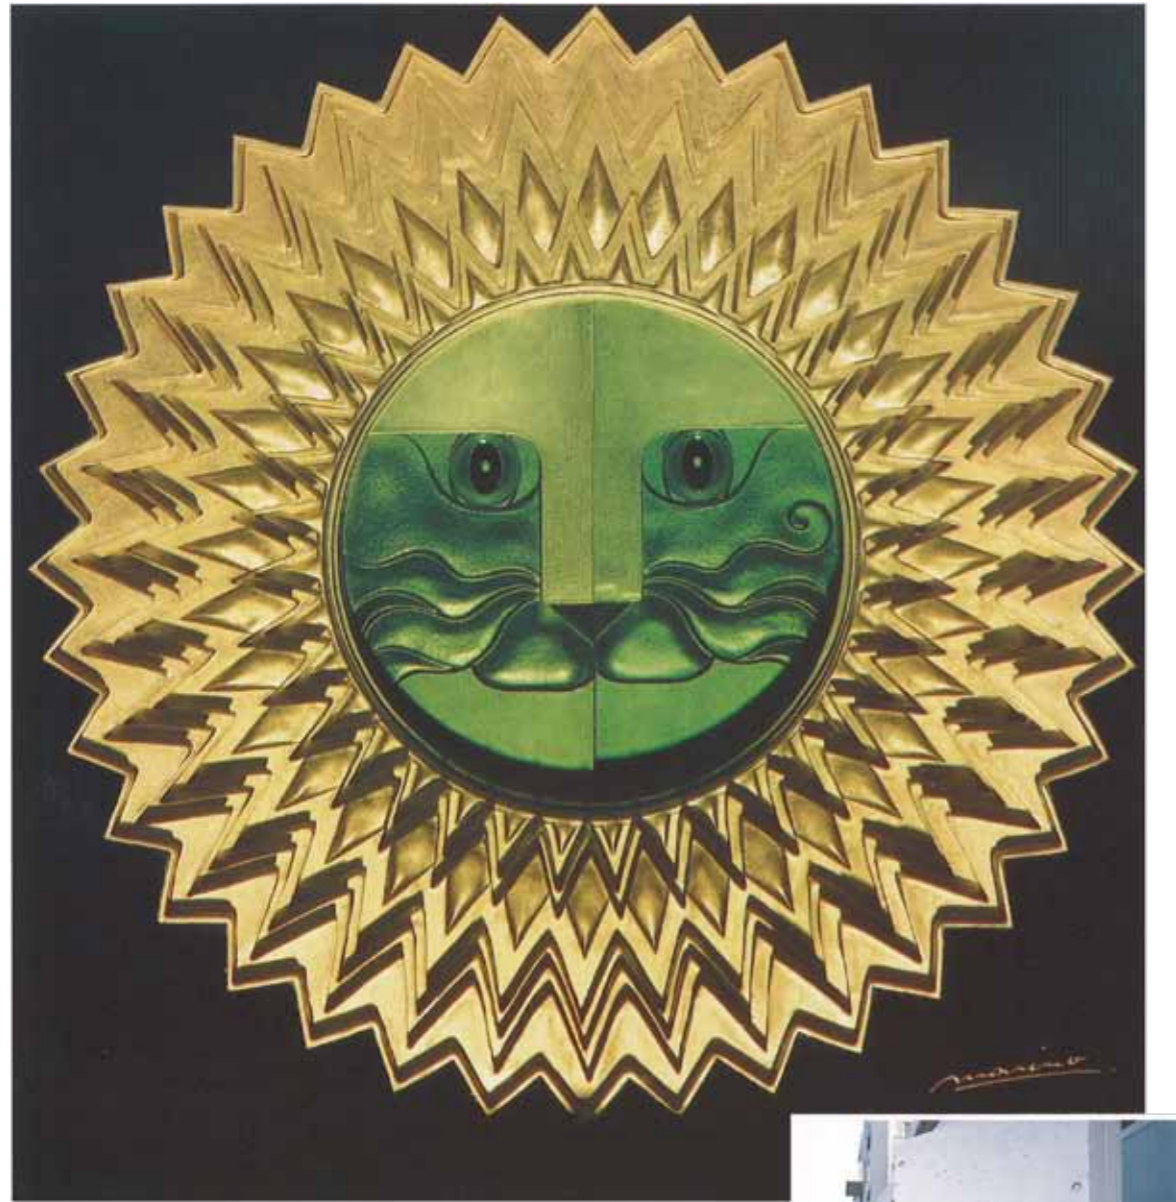

Aslan is the main character of that novels, also known as The Great Lion, is the creator, guardian and saviour and one true king of the world of Narnia.

The most important theme of that exhibition was “Creation” “Creativity”, and Aslan, the lion, was considered as the most appropriate symbol motif of that theme.

Film series “The chronicles of Narnia” got open and made waves across the world a decade later.
